We are an N.H.S. recovery focused supportive treatment service for any adult concerned about their drug or alcohol use, We work towards a service users own goals for recovery at all times with a strong emphasis on harm reduction. We also offer support for family/friends. We provide 3 confidential Drop in's a week for anyone concerned about their own or someone else's drug and alcohol use, one of these is in the evening ( see below ). We can work in partnership with other agencies including housing, education/training/financial support where/when indicated ensuring a holistic approach to recovery.
